

BICYCLE ACTION
FAT TYRE FIVE
 '85
HAY BLUFF
JULY 6 & 7

IT'S BEEN over a year now, but mountainbikers are still talking about it. The Hay Bluff Horsehoe was the highlight of last year's Bicycle Action Fat Tyre Five. Everything was how it should be for an off road ride. Magnificent scenery, a great course with a couple of little bumps to climb and the adrenalin pumping downhill on the other side. And the weather was perfect.

The Bicycle Co-operators can't guarantee the weather, but the rest of the elements are ready and waiting for this year's version on July 6 & 7.

All this year's FTF events will include an afternoon's racing for the more energetic. The Quantocks ride late last month (full report next issue) saw some frenzied racing action and Hay promises even more on a top course. The less energetic can watch or, if they'd rather, head off for a bit of pootling.

On the Sunday, The Big Ride. A mass ride for riders of all abilities to take at their own pace. Entries for this ride are strictly limited to the first 100 applications received, so fill in the entry form and send it off with an SAE - quickly. You will be sent your Sunday ride number and details about the weekend.

For those of you lucky enough to get your copy of BA early, remember that Fat Tyre Five Number 2 is on in Llanwrtyd Wells on the 22nd and 23rd of June.
