

CYCLIST

AUGUST 1985

In Extremis

- 22 KLUNKERS UP KILIMANJARO Part expedition, part jape: two Brits ride to the roof of Africa. By Nicholas Crane
- 42 MAD DOGS ON THE LOOSE AGAIN Gold Card touring with a difference. By Owen Mulholland

The Open Road

- 32 BIKE DREAMS Could this be the perfect bicycle tour? By Jim Travisano
- 36 TOURLINES Gear mania reconsidered. By Ed Stiles

Equipment

- 38 CENTURION IRONMAN A $480 bike for triathletes—and some of the rest of us.
- 46 SCHWINN CIMARRON
At $570, Schwinn's best mountain bike.

They Call It Fun

- 28 BUFFOONS TO BAJA The annual Tecate-Ensenada Ride is a culture clash like no other. By Dan Sorenson
- 50 RACING: THE FIRST TIME These four went racing, and lived to tell the tale. By Jacquie Phelan

Profile

- 54 JOHN HOWARD SUPERSTAR He was America's best in the '70s, and he's coming back. Again. By Dan Sorenson

The Compleat Cyclist

- 60 FITNESS UPDATE: AT training, plus pumping iron and beeping feet.
- 62 YOUR FUEL: The 10 worst foods. By Virginia DeMoss
- 64 YOUR TECHNIQUE: How to ride relaxed. By Thurlow Rogers, Karen Roy
- 66 YOUR MACHINE: How to adjust cantilever brakes. By John Barnett
- 68 YOUR BODY: How to use muscles efficiently. By Gretchen Swanson

Columns/Departments

- 8 DAN SORENSON: A lesson in aerobics.
- 10 JEFF SMITH: Bad manners.
- 12 RACEWATCH: Women in crisis. By Bjarne Rostaing
- 16 IN THE PACK: New images for Vails and Gorski.
- 49 VELOMART: Things to buy.
- 73 LETTERS: Complaint Dept.

“Just as the West was not won with registered guns, the Tour de France isn't won on alfalfa sprouts and Perrier.”

Page 10

“It struck me that this thin man was a giant in the earth, a saint in the bog. I thought of his words: ‘Safe home.’”

Page 32

On The Cover: We test a mountain bike and a fitness/triathlon bike. Photo by Vic Huber.